

What would you do in Maniac Mansion?

Rui "Puss in Boots" Pires (aka Redrum):

Push the gargoyle and lever it so the secret door never closed. Also, I'd have a workout, a nice bath with Ted, would open the grandfather clock, and would bathe in the radioactive pool (and act surprised when tentacles started growing).

Scummbuddy:

You mean, besides blatantly ignoring the velvet rope and sign saying "upstairs library closed"....

hmmm... maybe I'd take up Edna on that "chain you to the bed thing".... 🤢

Rui "Puss in Boots" Pires (aka Redrum):

Yeach, Scumm! That's disgusting!

Totoro:

Anyway, I would pet the hamster a lot, its so cute, and I would stare at Razor's legs all the time 🤢 and maybe try to eat some of the rotten meat and drink the Pepsi, since nobody else wants it anyway.

Bombadil:

I think I'd just spend the whole day playing on the video games while hearing Metal music on Green's speakers with the whole house trembling. ^^

I'm with you.

jetxl:

I would get in the Edsel, travel to Mars and get the chainsaw gas.

Two words. Tentacle rape!

DragonRose:

Did you ever play the tentacle mating song on Green's stereo? I don't know what happens but Green hops towards you, it fades to black and you end up dead. So I'm not going to think about that anymore.

Bombadil:

Yesterday, when I was in bed, I thought of waiting until the package for Ed arrives, and then hide on the kitchen/outside and while he is picking it up, close him outside. I couldn't hold the laughter. Muahahaha!

I've been thinking a while and it would be great to put the hamster in the microwave...

YOke:

I would NOT GO INTO THAT FRIGGIN HOUSE!!!! YOU JUST DIE, DIE, DIE AND DIE AGAIN!!!!

Rui "Puss in Boots" Pires (aka Redrum):

You're exaggerating, my dear friend. Besides, it's not as if your two buddies wouldn't be able to use the Chron-O-John to rescue you. Even Dr. Fred would mention that if someone had died before Sandy was rescued.

At any rate, I've been thinking and thinking and thinking, and I think I wouldn't mind publishing that meteor's autobiography. As long as I labeled it "fiction", it could be a bestseller!

Mr Flibble:

If I was in the mansion I would have the sense to turn the microwave off before I opened it. You'd think it would be obvious, but no...

ProgZmax:

As Bernard I would work out on the Hunk-o-Matic until I was mega buff, then I would kick Dave's ass and take Sandy away in Dr. Ed's Weird Edsel.

Mickey Bitsko:

I would give the tentacle lots of love, in the hope that that would counteract the pernicious effects from drinking polluted water. Then he would never want to take over the world and "DOTT" would never have been made and "Willow" would now be thought of as Lucas' greatest achievement.

Rui "Puss in Boots" Pires (aka Redrum):

At any rate, back on topic and back to the mansion (geez, I might as well REALLY move in), I'd seriously consider adding a pinball machine to all those videogames. Maybe a "Smite the Meteor!" board. Hey, maybe I'd even find a way to fix the air hockey and add a couple shoot-em-ups, like Mad Dog McPhee, or whatever the name is. And Virtua Cop! And billiards! And a DART BOARD! AND A SOCCER MACHINE!!! AND HALF-LIFE!!!!!! AND A COPY OF EEEVERY LEC AND SIERRA GAME EVER MADE IN A VIRTUAL REALITY INTERFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAACEEEEEEEEEEE EEEEE...

...sorry, I got carried away. Yeah. Pinball machine sounds good. 🤪

BruisedWeasel:

Frankly, I don't know what I'd do in that mansion. Probably bake some bread and search the fridge for Kraft Singles. And have arse sex with the hamster.

Mephistophilis:

Pesonally I'd Jack the Edsel, leave the bimbo to become a zombie and high tail it out of their making millions in street racing before selling the car and retiring to my Hawaiian Mansion.

auhsor:

And if I were in the mansion I would get the petrol out of the car and put it in the chainsaw... Or was the car empty. I forget now.

Radiant:

The car has enough gas to launch it into orbit. Try it some time!

aushor:

Oh yeah I remember that now. That was cool...

But you don't seem to realise how long I tried to be able to get the petrol out of the car to fill up the chainsaw... Stupid useless chainsaw... 🤪
